“Our mission is to simplify your financial life so you can live your life doing what you truly love”

R&R Investment Partners is a group of financial professionals that simplifies the financial lives of established investors. We provide complete wealth management services including financial planning and investment management that is fully integrated with your tax, estate and charitable needs. Our offering is personalized and fully independent while operating within the vast global resources of the CIBC group of companies.

Our focus

We coordinate all aspects of wealth management for our clients. This includes ensuring financial goals are clearly spelled out and a plan is put in place to achieve them.

We provide practical solutions for a family’s most pressing financial issues and we deliver personal high-grade service including:

- A personal financial roadmap
- Customized reporting
- Regularly scheduled communication, according to your preferences
- Investment portfolios that focus on a client’s needs
- The integration of experts in the areas of tax and estate planning to ensure your legacy

Our approach

Our approach is independent, disciplined and transparent. Our focus is on helping our clients meet their financial goals. We are in tune with a client’s goals and aspirations and why they have accumulated wealth in the first place and help them deal with the issues of disposition and multi-generational planning.

We like to think of our investment team as an “independent boutique” that has the benefit of leveraging the vast resources of the CIBC group of companies. Beyond personal investment management, and estate and legacy planning solutions, we deal extensively with private business owners in conjunction with our partners in corporate lending, business valuation and sale. Our expert partners in tax and estate planning help round out our complete offering.

Clients who seek us out are typically successful business owners and individuals who have accumulated and lived conservatively who want to be involved in charting the course for their financial well being, but do not want to be involved in the daily minutiae. Our clients are working or retired and engaged in many other aspects of their life. They enjoy the fact that they have a relationship with us where their goals are recognized and valued, communication is geared to their preferences, and they are respected as unique individuals.

Our guiding principles

Successful goal focused investing is a result of implementing a well thought out plan that focuses on a family's personal priorities. It also involves having the emotional stability to stick to this well thought out plan, even when most investors become euphoric risk takers or fearful pessimists.

Focused goals and emotional stability, these are the pillars of successful investing.

Accordingly, a worthwhile investment plan includes a flexible financial roadmap, that identifies what an investor's goals are—both short-term and long-term. It should also include any tax considerations that are important to an investor and their wishes, if any, for a legacy.

We focus on these priorities as aspects we can control within the investment process, and do not attempt to forecast the market or gaze into a crystal ball. By executing asset mix and portfolio management decisions that are rational and systematic, superior investment results can be achieved and risk can be managed (no one can completely eliminate it).

We invest in our best ideas. We are not influenced by corporate “buy lists”, quarter-end window dressing or the latest hot trend. Our sights are set on preserving and growing capital for our clients, and helping them avoid the “big mistake”.

R&R Investment Partners: Worry free wealth management and investment process

Personal Asset Allocation: The Buckets

After an extensive discovery process with you about your goals and objectives, we develop a customized financial roadmap to act as a “blueprint” for achieving your goals.

We then select the proper mix of equities, bonds and cash that will meet your needs for income, portfolio stability and growth. Different strategies are utilized for each unique goal's time horizon:

- Bucket 1: Cash for immediate short-term goals
- Bucket 2: Conservative balanced strategies for intermediate goals
- Bucket 3: Growth oriented strategies for long-term goals

Generally speaking, equities will fulfill the growth requirements, while bonds and cash should be allocated to provide sufficient income needs for a three year time period.

Obviously, this allocation can and will differ for investors depending on their stage of life, tax situation and other assets, such as real estate and business holdings.

Worry Free Wealth Management

What makes us special to our clients?

- We're in tune with their goals and aspirations, both emotionally and financially
- We're independent, disciplined and fully transparent

What makes our portfolio management unique?

- We manage nine investment strategies, from conservative to more aggressive, that are unique to R&R Investment Partners.
- We select the strategy or strategies that fit your investment goals, tolerance for risk, and investment time horizon.
- Our investment process is disciplined, rigorous, and thoughtful.
- Because we manage portfolios on your behalf, you are involved in the overall planning, yet have the freedom from day-to-day investing decisions and details.
- We make it easy for you to monitor your portfolio's success: top-notch quarterly performance reporting and gain/loss summaries for tax reporting.

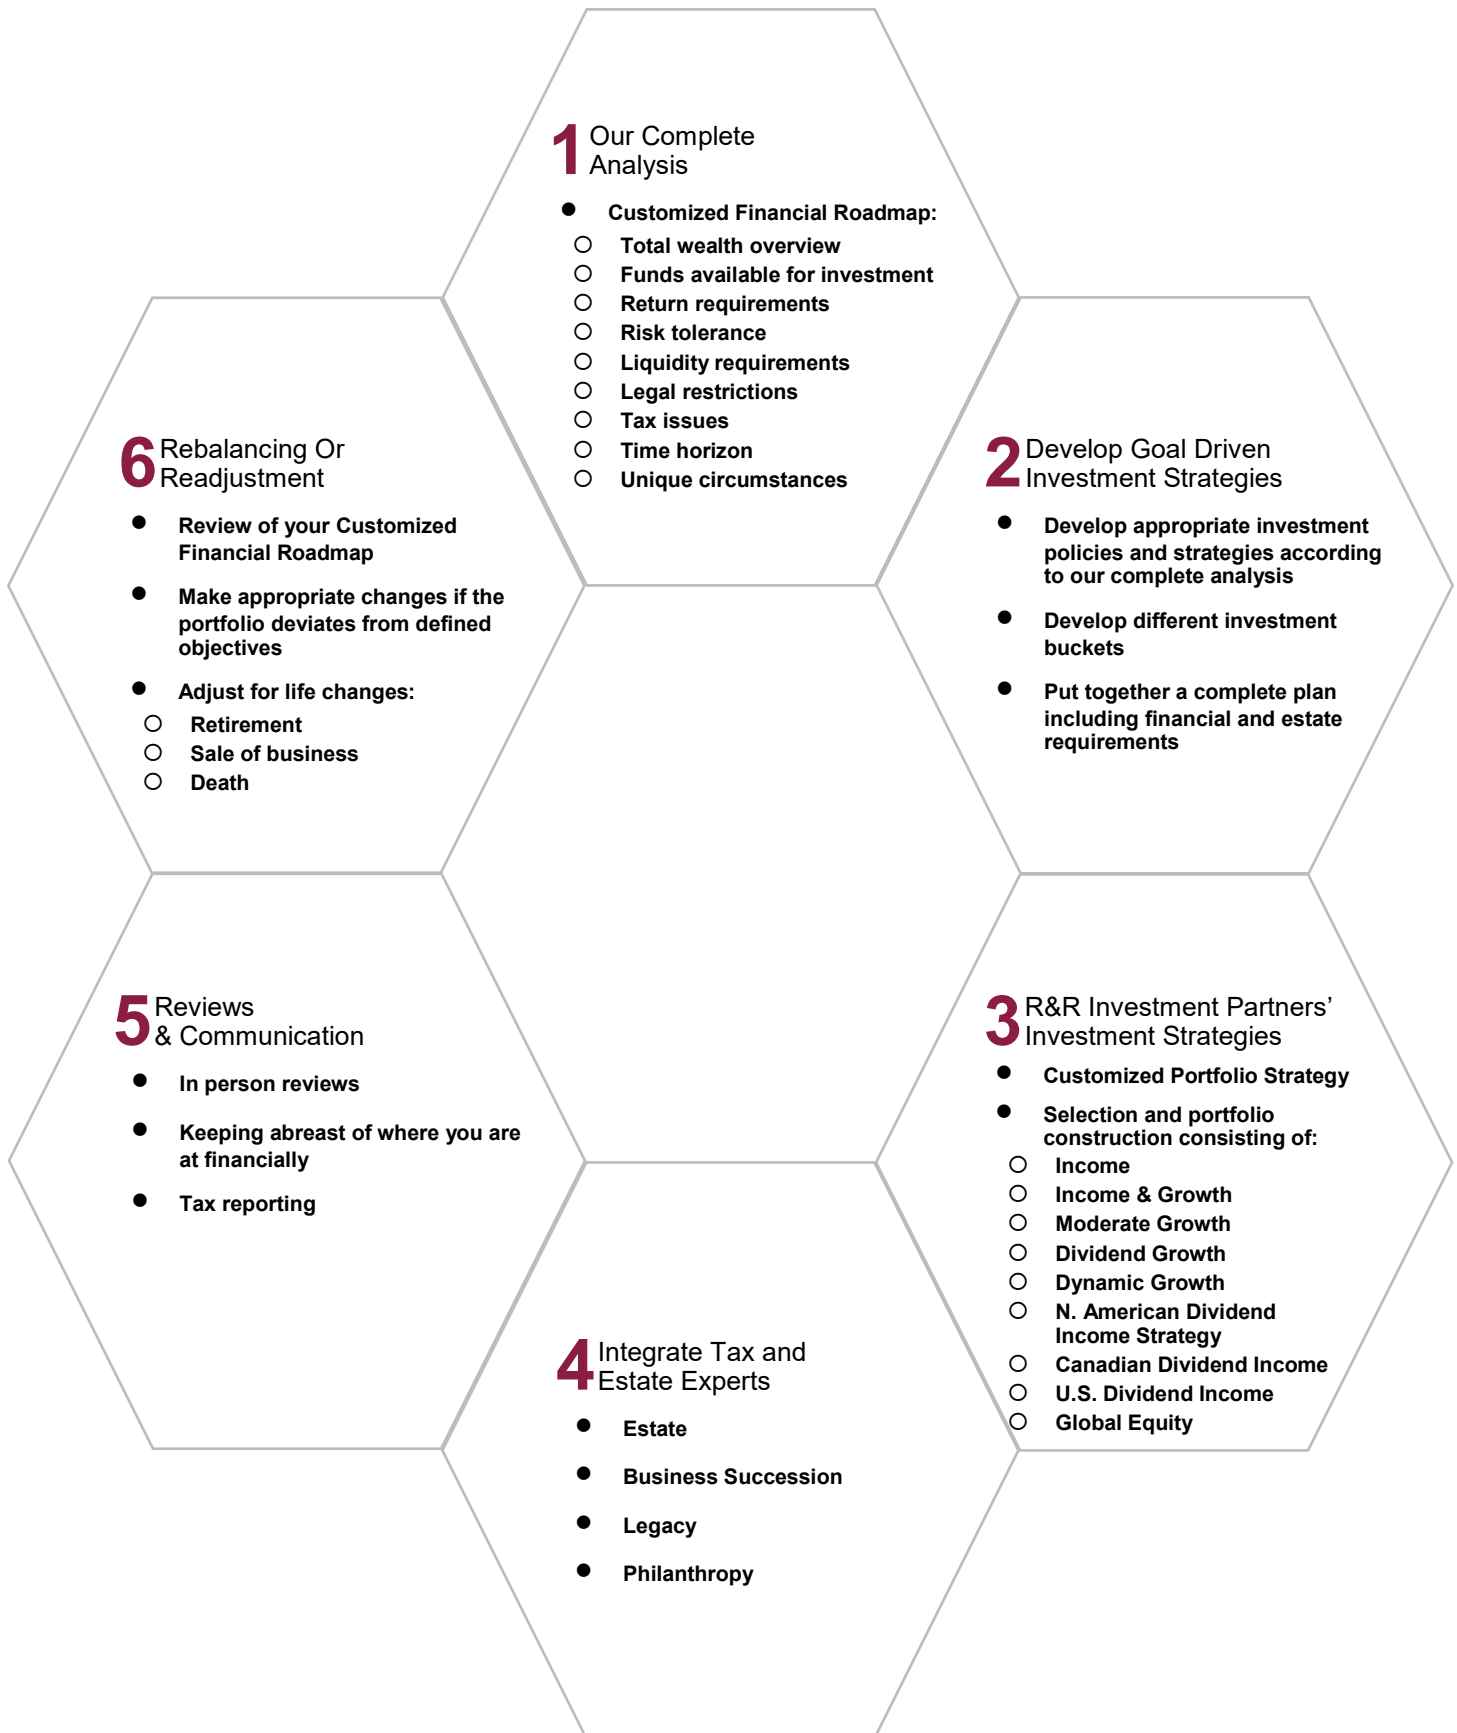

Forecasting and Market Timing

It is more predictable and repeatable to focus on sound asset allocation, proper stock selection and risk management, while keeping emotions in check, than it is to forecast or time the market.

These foundational principles are employed in constructing client portfolios. We are disciplined in our stock selection process, have a strict sell discipline, and find that quality companies have the best potential to outperform over time if they were bought at the right price and if investors stick to the process—especially during emotional periods.

Our research and experience has taught us it is better to be invested with a dynamic sell discipline through all market cycles to achieve superior long-term returns. History has proven that your personal asset allocation is also extremely important. To this end, we utilize different investment strategies for each goal's time horizon and review your asset allocation on a yearly basis to ensure it remains suitable for your present circumstances.
